20,000 PETS ATTENDING OUR VET SERVICES URGENTLY NEED OUR CARE!

At The Irish Blue Cross, we do all we can for the most needy of pet-owners to assist their pets. Over the next twelve months at least another 20,000 pets attending our mobile and small-animal clinic veterinary services will urgently need our care!

As we face into winter, our vets and volunteers are putting in longer hours every day, helping all those pet owners queueing with their pets at our mobile veterinary clinics and in attendance at our Inchicore small-animal clinic. They are constantly working to help the many thousands of small animals brought to us by their needy owners for a range of Blue Cross veterinary care services.

AND EVERY TIME WE HELP A PET, WE HELP A FAMILY.

By the end of this year, we will have helped 20,000 small animals attending our veterinary services. But to each pet-owner, the animal that means the most is their own. By keeping these pets healthy, and providing our services for genuinely needy owners, we help maintain quality of life for all family members - not just pets. In these difficult economic times, that means much more than ever.

WHEN A PET OWNER KNOWS THAT THE IRISH BLUE CROSS IS THERE - WILLING AND ABLE TO HELP - THEY HAVE PEACE OF MIND.

With the addition of our Inchicore small-animal clinic we can ensure that so many more needy pets are looked after. The clinic has its own full-time vet team, and pets that urgently require surgery get the best care available. For routine surgery such as a neutering operation, we provide the very best care for our patients as well.

Without your generosity and loyal support, these services would not be possible. So please continue to give what you can towards helping needy pets and their owners.

Yours sincerely,
